

THE LEADER IN SPECIAL EVENT JERSEYS

About OT Sports

- OT Sports is a family-owned sports uniform manufacturing company that has been supplying professional sports teams around the world since 1994.
- OT Sports is the leading supplier of team special event jerseys throughout professional sports in the United States, providing jerseys for over 1,000 special event theme games each year.
- Over 250 teams throughout Minor League Baseball, Minor League Hockey, Junior Hockey, Minor Pro Soccer, and the NBA G-League actively promote special event theme nights.
- Through special event jersey auctions, OT Sports jerseys have generated over $5,000,000 in auction revenue, most of which are donated to local charity foundations.
- All OT Sports jerseys are manufactured in the USA in our North Carolina factory.

Strategic Partnerships

OT Sports has built licensing partnerships with some of the most popular and identifiable brands in the world. Although terms with each agreement vary, OT Sports is able to help teams obtain rights and design jerseys for brand approval that can be game worn, auctioned and in some cases, retailed within local team stores. We are continuously adding brands and establishing new relationships. Please visit our website for up to date partnerships and programs.

Key Features

Superior Customer Service

From finding the right theme, to the creation of completely custom artwork, all the way through to design approvals and fulfillment, OT Sports will help make your theme night jersey experience fun and successful.

Professional Experience

OT Sports supplies hundreds of professional sports teams each season and understands the demands required from a professional organization. This includes but is not limited to equipment manager conveniences such as nameplate changes, rules and regulations regarding the inclusion of sponsorship logos with leagues and properties, as well as the jersey quality and performance attributes required to withstand the demands of a professional athlete.

In-House Design and Manufacturing

All design and components of our jerseys are completed in our 40,000 square foot North Carolina manufacturing plant. This vertical operation enables OT Sports to provide quicker turnaround, more competitive pricing in lower minimums, and better customer service, with hands-on service and order updates coming direct from the source.

Sublimation Print Technology

OT Sports uses a unique printing technology which permanently dyes an image into a surface. Unlike a screen-printed image or applique, a sublimated image on fabric leaves no "hand" or "feel", and will not crack, fade or peel. OT Sports has been a leader in this technology for over 20 years and is one of the largest athletic sublimation print companies in the USA.

Benefits

Special Event theme jerseys offer the potential to generate additional revenue streams through:

Game worn jersey auctions, which have higher payouts resulting from “limited edition” and specialty themes that fans crave. OT Auctions can help your team facilitate these auctions through our online, sportsspecific platform.

Association with world-renown brands and properties, bringing added credibility to your organization among fans and peers

Higher attendance, attracting non-traditional spectators through special event themes or properties and also leading to higher retail and concession sales

Broader Community Awareness, resulting from more press and social media coverage surrounding the event

More Sponsorship Opportunities, as companies want to be associated with special opportunities that bring in more fans and more exposure
